

Paul Major

---

Prior to becoming President of American Golf, Mr. Major was active in a variety of roles within American Golf and National Golf Properties and oversaw business development, transactional and legal activities. Mr. Major is experienced with all aspects of golf course transactions, having been involved in the evaluation, acquisition and disposition of numerous golf courses over the years.

Mr. Major joined National Golf in 1993 and was appointed the Company's Executive Vice President in 1998 after rising through the ranks in a variety of roles in the business development group. In addition, Mr. Major assumed additional responsibilities in 2003 following the acquisition of American Golf by Goldman Sachs and Starwood Capital and was appointed President in 2005.

Prior to joining National Golf, Mr. Major was a corporate lawyer at Latham & Watkins in Los Angeles. He received a JD degree from the Boalt Hall Law School and a Bachelor of Sciences degree in Economics from the University of California at Berkeley.

---